Su Fw: [epa_bristolbay] EPA seeks scientist nominations for Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment peer review panel

bje

ct:

FYI - I am sending this to the tribal governments who are in government-to-government consultation with EPA on the Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment. I am not sure if you have all signed up for the Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment List Serve, so I apologize if you have seen this already.

I will be organizing a teleconference call for the tribal governments who have requested tribal consultation. We haven't had any new updates so I haven't organized one since our last meeting in December. There have been several meetings where EPA has presented information, at the December BBNC Leadership meeting, at the Alaska Forum on the Environment, and other meetings where tribal leaders have been present. We have been very busy putting the watershed assessment together, but would like to hold an update meeting for the tribal governments via teleconference soon.

I will be sending information out soon about the next tribal government conference call.

Please let myself or Rick Parkin know if you have any questions.

Respectfully,
Tami

Subject: [epa_bristolbay] EPA seeks scientist nominations for Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment peer review panel
Sent by: Hanady Kader/R10/USEPA/US@EPA

On Feb. 24, EPA launched the process to nominate qualified scientists for an external peer review panel that will evaluate EPA's draft Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment. The nomination period runs from Feb. 24 to March 9.

Nominees for the peer review panel should have background knowledge and expertise in one or more of the following areas:

- Mining, particularly porphyry copper
- Salmon fisheries biology
- Surface, subsurface or watershed hydrology
- Aquatic ecology
- Biogeochemistry
- Seismology
- Ecotoxicology
- Wildlife ecology
- Indigenous Alaskan cultures

An independent contractor will accept nominations online.

Final peer review panel members will be selected by the contractor based upon the following criteria:

- Demonstrated expertise through relevant peer reviewed publications
- Professional accomplishments and recognition by professional societies
- Demonstrated ability to work constructively and effectively in a committee setting

Absence of financial conflicts of interest
No actual conflicts of interest or the appearance of bias Willingness to commit adequate time for a thorough review of the assessment report commencing in late April 2012
In-person participation at a peer review panel meeting in Anchorage, Alaska in August 2012
